Dear Parent/Carer

Norfolk Residential – Final Reminders

Here are a few final details for the Norfolk residential trip taking place at the start of next academic year.

When:

Tuesday 29th August – Saturday 2nd September. On the Tuesday, your children need to arrive at school at 8 am. If the weather is dry, the cases can be placed along the low fence at the front of the school. Children will then come through the double fire-exit into the Large Hall. During this time, medication (with the appropriate paperwork) and spending money needs to be handed in. Children will also be registered and asked to use the toilet. The bus will be arriving 8:30am. Parents are welcome to wait at the front of the school to wave us off onto the coach; however, don't feel guilty if you need to get off to work etc - say goodbye to them as they go into the hall.

On the Saturday, we are leaving Cromer at 1pm so our estimated time of arrival will be approximately 4pm (I will update you via Class Dojo when we are on the way back – make sure you keep refreshing your parent account).

Where:

Aylmerton Outdoor Education Centre, The Old School House, Aylmerton, Norwich, Norfolk, NR11 8RA

I'd also like to remind you about the resources on this section of our website: \(click here\)

- Spending Money Letter: \(click here\)
- Medication Form (if your child needs to take medication, then one form needs filling in per medication): \(click here\)

Reminder about communication whilst we are there:

As I explained in the initial residential meeting, we will post some updates via Class Dojo. However, staff are prohibited from using their personal devices to take photos to post. I will post an update when we arrive and give you an update each morning and evening too.

Our itinerary has now been finalised with the centre.
